Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

*Holywell School is a safe school and follows
Government PREVENT protocols to ensure it stays that way.*

INTRODUCTION

At Holywell Primary School we are committed to providing an environment where excellent behavior is at the heart of productive learning. We aim to provide a happy, safe and stimulating community where each individual is valued and respected and in turn takes responsibility for their actions. By working together, we believe the whole school community can create the culture necessary for each pupil to achieve their full potential.

CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE PUPIL

As a school that respects the rights of the pupils and adults in our school family, community and beyond, we aim for each school policy to adhere to articles from UNICEF's Convention on the Rights of the Pupil (UNCRC)

In this policy, we are working towards the following articles:

- Article 3 and 28 - We have the right to an education
- Article 15 - We treat each other with respect
- Articles 12, 17 and 36 - We have the right to be heard, kept safe and given reliable information
- Articles 13, 14 and 30 - We have the right to express ourselves, think and believe what we want
- Articles 15 and 31 - We have the right to meet with friends, play and join a variety of groups
- Articles 17, 23, 27, 33 and 34 - We have the right to reliable information, play an active part in the community and a good standard of living
- Article 19 - We have the right to be safe

AIMS

This policy aims to:

- Provide a consistent approach to behaviour management
- Define what we consider to be unacceptable behaviour, including bullying and discrimination
- Outline how pupils are expected to behave
- Summarise the roles and responsibilities of different people in the school community with regards to behaviour management
- Outline our system of rewards and consequences

Legislation and statutory requirements

This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on:

- Behaviour and discipline in schools

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

- Behaviour in schools: advice for Head of Schools and school staff 2022
- Searching, screening and confiscation at school
- The Equality Act 2010
- Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units
- Use of reasonable force in schools
- Supporting pupils with medical conditions at school

It is also based on the special educational needs and disability (SEND) code of practice.

In addition, this policy is based on:

- Schedule 1 of the Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014 paragraph 7 outlines a school's duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of pupils, paragraph 9 requires the school to have a written behaviour policy and paragraph 10 requires the school to have an anti-bullying strategy
- DfE guidance explaining that academies should publish their behaviour policy and anti-bullying strategy online

This policy complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

RIGHTS, ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Our approach to managing behavior is based on developing our pupils' understanding of these rights and their role and responsibility in ensuring these rights are maintained for all members of our school community.

- Governors

The governing board is responsible for monitoring this behaviour policy's effectiveness and holding the Head of School to account for its implementation.

- Head of School

The Head of School is responsible for reviewing and approving this behaviour policy. The Head of School will ensure that the school environment encourages positive behaviour and that staff deal effectively with poor behaviour, and will monitor how staff implement this policy to ensure rewards and sanctions are applied consistently.

- Staff

Staff are responsible for creating a calm and safe environment for all pupils, establishing and maintaining clear boundaries of acceptable behaviour, implementing the behaviour policy consistently, modelling positive behaviour, providing a personalised approach to the specific behavioural needs of particular pupils and recording behaviour incidents according to school policy.

The senior leadership team will support staff in responding to behaviour incidents.

- Parents and Carers

Parents and Carers are expected to support their child in adhering to the pupil code of conduct, inform the school of any changes in circumstances that may affect their pupil's behaviour and discuss any behavioural concerns with the class teacher promptly and are responsible for taking part in any pastoral work following misbehaviour.

The school will endeavour to build a positive relationship with parents and carers by keeping them informed about developments in their child's behaviour and the school's policy, and working in collaboration with them to tackle behavioural issues.

- Pupils

Pupils are expected to behave in an orderly and self-controlled way and show respect to members of staff and each other. In class, pupils must make it possible for all pupils to learn. They should move quietly around the school and treat the school buildings and school property with respect. We expect pupils to wear the correct uniform at all times and refrain from behaving in a way which brings the school into disrepute, including when outside school. As we use the Restorative Approach, we will not expect pupils to 'accept sanctions' blindly, but we do expect our pupils to discuss any issues arising and find a way to repair and restore any wrongdoing.

OUR CORE VALUES AND PRINCIPLES

Our core values underpin everything we do and believe. We actively seek to consistently apply these principles and uphold them at all times:

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch
Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

VALUE	BEHAVIOUR WE WANT TO SEE
Ready	We make the most of every opportunity
Respectful	We treat each other as we would like to be treated
Responsible	We are in charge of our own actions and achievements
Resilient	We never give up, learn from our mistakes and always try our best

Behaviour for Learning

To ensure our children understand how to demonstrate these values, the school community designed a series of effective learning powers. Each week, one of these behaviours for learning becomes the school's focus.

Class Charters

Staff work with the pupils to establish a clear set of classroom rules and routines – we call this our 'Class Charter'. These are based on our core values and underpinned by the UNCRC rights.

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

PROMOTING POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR MANAGEMENT

Positive behaviour management is the responsibility of all staff and the wider school community. It is a co-operative venture: we work as part of a team. Mutual support, consistency and communication are an essential component of this teamwork.

We believe the most effective way of achieving our aim is by recognising and encouraging achievement and effort by pupils either for learning or attitude and behaviour.

Teaching and support staff are responsible for setting the tone and context for positive behaviour within the classroom.

On a daily basis staff will:

- Create and maintain a stimulating environment encouraging pupils to be engaged
- Establish with the children a set of classroom rules/Charter
- Develop a positive relationship with pupils, which may include:
 - Establishing clear routines
 - Communicating expectations of behaviour in ways other than verbally
 - Highlighting and promoting good behaviour
 - Having a plan for dealing with low-level disruption

- Positive Comments

These will be constructive and reflective verbal or written comments on pupil's work and will reflect good or outstanding standards of achievement and/or attitude.

- Lunchtime Rewards

Pupils who demonstrate our core values and follow the agreed playground rules may receive a Dojo point or a sticker related to their good behaviour in the hall.

- Class Dojo

Some classes use Class Dojo to promote positive recognition of good behaviour. Pupils who demonstrate the expected standards of behaviour in line with our core values may receive 1 Dojo point. Pupils who demonstrate 'Over and Above' expectations may receive 3 Dojo points.

Class Dojo points will be awarded for anyone who can demonstrate they are:

- Ready
- Respectful
- Responsible
- Resilient

Staff may also add their own recognition points in Class Dojo as appropriate for their class. Classes will work to achieve a set number of Class Dojos in order to achieve an agreed special reward.

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

Weekly and/or termly basis:

- 'H.E.L.P' Awards

These awards celebrate and recognise pupil's outstanding contribution and effort towards our weekly learning power. A postcard will be sent to parents via post in recognition of their pupil's achievement.

ROUTINES

We recognise the importance of establishing routines for use at different points of the school day so both pupils and adults are clear about what is expected of them. Predictable routines which everyone understands are reassuring and help to build a sense of belonging. Class teachers will develop routines for use at a range of different points of the school day. We teach routines by breaking them down into steps which are modelled, reinforced and revisited as much as necessary. Routines:

- Create safety and allows for learning to become more likely to occur
- Demonstrates reliability
- Allows pupils to self-regulate
- Relinquish the need to control others to make themselves feel safe
- Improve 'undesirable' behaviours which originate in not feeling safe or feeling fear of humiliation/shame

Some specific routines we have established are:

- Check ins and Check outs

Every pupil has the opportunity to participate in a 'check in' at key parts of the day. This enables them to say how they may be feeling and appropriate action to be taken if necessary.

- Meet and Greet

Staff aim to meet and greet every pupil at the door of their classroom every day. This is an opportunity for the pupils and staff to start the day on a positive note.

- Managing Transitions

As a whole class, before entering the classroom, teachers stop the class at the door and give three short, sharp instructions to set behaviour expectations. Eg (using a finger for each instruction) Calmly and quietly – Seats – English Books. Repeat. Repeat. Repeat, until all children have entered the classroom and are doing as instructed. We do not enter the classroom with noise and then have to bring behaviour back to the desired. Additionally, at the end of break and lunch, the first whistle means stop, the second whistle means line up.

- Voice Control

The ONLY time that shouting is permitted is if a child is in danger and you need their attention immediately. We do not use shouting as a form of behaviour management.

- Fantastic Walking/Sitting

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

We encourage all children to walk and sit in a manner which keeps children safe and allows all to maximise their learning opportunities. These are the specific expectations we have of children when walking or sitting. When we see examples we should seek to praise children accordingly

At Holywell we demonstrate fantastic...
Sitting	Walking
Hands: Empty	Hands: Behind backs
Eyes: Forward	Eyes: Forward
Mouths: Closed	Mouths: Closed
Legs: On the floor	Legs: Stay in line

- Order of Escalation

Behaviours should be addressed by the initial person of contact. If this can not be dealt with appropriate or constitutes a significant concern, problems should be reported as follows:

Initial contact → Class Teacher → Member of SLT → Head of School/Executive Headteacher

UNDERSTANDING BEHAVIOUR

The key to positive behaviour management is in establishing an environment where positive behaviour is intrinsically motivated.

We recognise that positive behaviour should be taught in the same way we teach subjects in our curriculum. Staff therefore:

- IDENTIFY the behaviour we expect
- Explicitly TEACH behaviour
- MODEL the behaviour we are expecting
- PRACTISE behaviour
- NOTICE excellent behaviour
- CREATE conditions for excellent behaviour

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

At all times, the emphasis is on making good choices about behaviour. For the vast majority of pupils, a gentle reminder or nudge in the right direction is all that is required. However, we recognise there may be times when some pupils find it difficult to make choices which affect the rights of others and disrupt the core values we uphold.

All Behaviour is communication

The key to understanding certain behaviours is to ask the question 'WHY are they behaving in this way?'

There could be a number of different factors to understanding a pupil's choices in why they display certain behaviours which are influenced by a pupil's social, emotional, mental and cultural experiences. For some pupils, they may exhibit particular behaviours based on early childhood experiences and family circumstances. As a school we recognise their behaviour is their way of communicating their emotions.

In order to support and help a pupil to learn, think and reflect we have adopted a simple intervention strategy based on research from Dr Bruce Perry on the Neurosequential Model of Therapeutics (<https://www.bdperry.com>): The Three 'R's, reaching the learning brain.

A Restorative Approach

When a pupil is ready and able to reason staff use restorative questioning as a way to structure discussions, allow the pupil reflect, learn from their mistakes and rebuild

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

relationships. It is very effective in enabling pupils to make better choices and become self-assured. The basic ethos of the restorative approach is to:

- Ensure that people have the chance to understand the harm they have done to others
- Give people who have caused harm the chance to put things right.

Some or all of the following questions may be used in a restorative conversation:

1. What happened?

Listen carefully and dispassionately without interrupting or disagreeing. When the pupil has finished, present your account without judgement.

2. What were you thinking at the time?

3. What have you thought since?

This question opens doors for a change of attitude or the wish to put actions right. They may need help teasing this out.

4. How did this make people feel?

A chance to think about the impact of their behaviour on others who might have been worried by it.

5. Who has been affected?

Often pupils will think that they are the only person affected. Encourage them to think about others – e.g. what about Mrs X who couldn't teach her lesson? What about X who hates loud noises? What might mum say? What about X who wanted to play with you this break?

6. How have they been affected?

7. What should we do to put things right?

Resist the urge to guide the conversation to an apology – there may be other ways to put things right. A forced apology is worthless!

8. How can we do things differently in the future?

See Appendix 2 for further information on Restorative approaches adopted at this school.

CONSEQUENCES

At Holywell we use a Restorative Approach with consequences rather than punishment to address poor behaviour.

Using Consequences:

- Allows for a growing understanding of cause and affect
- Remove the label 'bad' or 'naughty pupil' who needs to be 'punished'
- Allows the pupil the opportunity to begin to understand how their behaviour affects others and their surroundings without shame
- Reduces the pupil's fear of failure/shame (if done in private and without the public humiliation)
- Allows the consequence to be AGREED and APPROPRIATE to the misdemeanour rather than a standard 'punishment' such as missing playtime

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

At all times, the emphasis is on making good choices about behaviour. For the vast majority of pupils, a gentle reminder is all that is required. However, we recognise there may be times when some pupils make choices which affect the rights of others and disrupt the core values we uphold.

Equity not Equality

“WHY DOES HE GET A DIFFERENT CONSEQUENCE? THAT’S NOT FAIR!”

At Holywell we recognise not everyone starts from the the same place and not everyone has the same needs. Therefore, when deciding appropriate consequences during the restorative conversation, it is important to understand the difference between Equality and Equity.

Equity is giving everyone what they need to be successful. Equality is treating everyone the same.

Our aim is to promote fairness and equality but with an understanding of the pupil’s needs, age, social, emotional or mental health issues. This means some pupils will require additional support in addressing specific behaviours. In this case, these pupils will have bespoke positive behaviour plans and consequences which may include rewards to reinforce positive behaviour.

The Script

All staff will use ‘The Script’ to teach pupils about making good choices. This is a generic verbal communication between staff member and pupil to allow the pupil to reflect upon their behaviour in an attempt to deescalate the situation and prevent consequences being issued. (see Appendix 3 for script ideas)

	Steps	Actions
1	Redirection and reminder	Gentle encouragement, a ‘nudge’ in the right direction, small act of kindness A reminder of our core values and the rights of the pupil delivered privately wherever possible

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

		Example - 'I notice you are running. Remember we need to walk to be safe in school. Show me your fantastic walking. Thank you for listening.'
2	Caution	A clear verbal caution delivered privately, wherever possible, making the pupil aware of their behaviour and clearly outlining the consequences if they continue. Refer to previous examples of good behaviour. Use the 30 second scripted intervention (See Appendix 3) Example - 'I have noticed you are not ready to do your work. Remember the rule about being ready. Everyone in this classroom has the right to learn and you are distracting some of your friends. If you choose to continue disrupting the learning you will have to catch up with your work at playtime. Do you remember yesterday you started your work straight away and got it finished? That is what I need to see today. Thank you for listening.'
3	Reflection time	A short time in another class or at the side of the field/playground. It is a time for the pupil to calm down, breathe, look at the situation from a different perspective and compose themselves. The pupil may be asked to complete a Restorative Reflection sheet (See Appendix 5) before following up with the adult. Example - 'I have noticed you chose to use rude words. Remember the rule about being respectful. You have now chosen to go and sit in the quiet area. I will come and speak to you in two minutes. Thank you for listening.' TIME IN not TIME OUT
5	Putting things right	If the pupil continues with same behaviour after they are expected to spend some or all of their free time eg: playtime with the adult to repair any harm caused. The link between the behaviour and the harm needing repair is made clear. At this stage some of the restorative questions may be used to support the discussion
6	Time to Talk	A reflective conversation takes place between the adult and the pupil. The pupil is encouraged to take responsibility for their behaviour choices, to consider the impact on themselves and others. The restorative questions should be used to frame the discussion If appropriate, Staff to inform parents/carers at the end of the day or as soon after as possible and set the expectation the pupil will make better choices tomorrow
It is not the severity of the consequence; it is the certainty that follow up will take place which is important.

All pupils will be treated equitably under the policy, with any factors that contributed to the behavioural incident identified and considered.

When giving consequences, staff will also consider what support could be offered to a pupil to help them to meet behaviour expectations in the future.

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

Significant Behavioural Issues

If a pupil repeatedly reaches part 6 of the 'The Script', staff may use one or more of the following consequences in response to unacceptable behaviour:

Consequences	Possible Behaviours
LEVEL 1
Loss of privileges – for instance, the loss of a responsibility School-based community service Loss of break or lunch time	Continually reaching part 6 of the script. Inappropriate language (swearing) Over-aggressive language or action
LEVEL 2
Referring the pupil to a senior member of staff Asking the pupil to work in another classroom Expecting work to be completed in own time. Letter or phone call home to parents Establishing a behaviour contract	Continually demonstrating Level 1 behaviour. Fighting Bullying Sexual harassment Vandalism Theft Possession of prohibited items Online Bullying
LEVEL 3
Formal Meeting with Parents and SLT In the instance of a serious breach of the behaviour policy, the pupil's parents/carers will be invited for a formal meeting with a member of the Senior Leadership Team and/or the Head of School to discuss strategies to help the pupil understand how to improve their behaviour and meet the expectations of the school. This may include measures like: reintegration meetings; daily contact with the pastoral lead or SLT; Behaviour and Attitude Check in log with the pupil (See Appendix 4). Fixed-Term Exclusion Repeated application of final consequences as above may result in the possibility of fixed term suspension. This will include a personalised re-integration plan for the pupil upon their return.	Continually demonstrating Level 2 behaviour. A case of Level 2 behaviour at a significant level.
Permanent Exclusion Permanent exclusion is a measure of last	Regularly demonstrating Level 2/3 behaviour.

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

resort and only considered when all other interventions and support mechanisms have been exhausted and the safety and well-being of other pupils are at risk. Before any permanent exclusion the lower levels of consequences will have been utilised. Permanent exclusions will be carried out in strict accordance with statutory regulations and will always be considered as a means of ensuring the overall welfare and educational experience of our entire school community.	A case of Level 2 behaviour at a substantial level.

In the event of the Head of School's absence, the Assistant Headteacher or Executive Headteacher will assume responsibility for the decision to suspend or exclude.

Personal circumstances of the pupil will be taken into account when choosing sanctions and decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis, but with regard to the impact on perceived fairness.

Lunchtime

At lunchtime the same core values and rules are expected from all pupils and it is the role of the lunchtime supervisors to oversee this. Any poor behaviour is dealt with straight away by using the same steps expected within the classroom e.g. verbal warning and a time out period.

For pupils who consistently display poor behaviour, they will be placed into a social skills development group during their lunchtimes organised and supervised by the Inclusion Manager and Pastoral Team. Peer Play Leaders will be on duty during lunchtime to ensure pupils are happy and encouraging pupils to play together in an appropriate manner.

Zero-tolerance approach to sexual harassment and sexual violence

Holywell School will ensure that all incidents of sexual harassment and/or violence are met with a suitable response and never ignored.

Pupils are encouraged to report anything that makes them uncomfortable, no matter how 'small' they feel it might be.

The school's response will be:

- Proportionate
- Considered
- Supportive
- Decided on a case-by-case basis

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

Consequences for sexual harassment and violence will always involve a formal meeting with the pupil's parents/carers. We have procedures in place to respond to any allegations or concerns regarding a pupil's safety or wellbeing. These include clear processes for:

- Responding to a report
- Carrying out risk assessments, where appropriate, to help determine whether to:
 - Manage the incident internally
 - Refer to early help
 - Refer to pupil's social care
 - Report to the police

Please refer to our pupil protection and safeguarding policy for more information
<https://www.holywell.kent.sch.uk/safeguarding/>

Pupil conduct outside school property

Restorative conversations and consequences may be applied where a pupil has misbehaved off-site when representing the school. This means misbehaviour when the pupil is:

- Taking part in any school-organised or school-related activity (e.g. school trips)
- Travelling to or from school
- Wearing school uniform
- In any other way identifiable as a pupil of our school

Restorative conversations and consequences may also be applied where a pupil has misbehaved off-site at any time, whether or not the conditions above apply, if the misbehaviour:

- Could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
- Poses a threat to another pupil or member of the public
- Could adversely affect the reputation of the school

Online misbehaviour

The school can issue behaviour consequences to pupils for online misbehaviour when:

- It poses a threat or causes harm to another pupil
- It could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school
- It adversely affects the reputation of the school
- The pupil is identifiable as a member of the school

Consequences will only be given out on school premises or elsewhere when the pupil is under the lawful control of a staff member.

MALICIOUS ALLEGATIONS

Where a pupil makes an allegation against a member of staff and that allegation is shown to have been deliberately invented or malicious, the school will discipline the pupil in accordance with this policy.

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

Where a pupil makes an allegation of sexual violence or sexual harassment against another pupil and that allegation is shown to have been deliberately invented or malicious, the school will discipline the pupil in accordance with this policy.

In all cases where an allegation is determined to be unsubstantiated, unfounded, false or malicious, Holywell School (in collaboration with the local authority designated officer, where relevant) will consider whether the pupil who made the allegation is in need of help, or the allegation may have been a cry for help. If so, a referral to children's social care may be appropriate.

The school will also consider the pastoral needs of staff and pupils accused of misconduct. Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding policy for more information on responding to allegations of abuse against staff or other pupils.

THE USE OF REASONABLE FORCE

In some circumstances, staff may use reasonable force to restrain a pupil to prevent them from (See Appendix 7 for details of physical restraint):

- Causing disorder
- Hurting themselves or others
- Damaging property
- Committing an offence

Incidents of physical restraint must:

- Always be used as a last resort
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned
- Never be used as a form of punishment
- Be recorded on Edukey (safeguarding and behaviour monitoring software) and reported to parents

When considering using reasonable force, staff should, in considering the risks, carefully recognise any specific vulnerabilities of the pupil, including SEND, mental health needs or medical conditions.

SEARCHING AND CONFISCATION

Only the Head of School, members of the Senior Leadership Team and the Family Liaison Officer have the power to search a pupil for a prohibited or banned item (sections 550ZA and 550ZB of the Education Act 1996, and paragraph 10 in the DfE guidance).

- The person carrying out the search must be the same sex as the pupil being searched
- There must be another member of staff present as a witness to the search - they don't have to be the same sex as the pupil

The only exception to the above is if:

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

- The searcher reasonably believes that there is a risk of serious harm being caused to a person if a search is not carried out urgently and it is not reasonably practical to summon another member of staff (to carry out the search or act as a witness) within the time available

When an authorised staff member conducts a search, they should immediately report it on Edukey regardless of whether an item was found.

The record should include:

- The date, time and location of the search
- Which pupil was searched
- Who conducted the search and any other adults or pupils present
- What was being searched for
- The reason for searching
- What items, if any, were found
- What follow-up action was taken as a consequence of the search

Any prohibited items (listed below) found in pupils' possession will be confiscated. These items will not be returned to pupils.

- These are:
 - Knives or weapons
 - Alcohol
 - Illegal drugs
 - Stolen items
 - Tobacco and cigarette papers
 - Fireworks
 - Pornographic images
 - Any article a staff member reasonably suspects has been, or is likely to be, used to commit an offence, or to cause personal injury to, or damage to the property of, any person (including the pupil)

We will also confiscate any item which is harmful or detrimental to school discipline. These items will be returned to pupils after discussion with senior leaders and parents, if appropriate.

See Appendix 8 for details of how to carry out a search of a pupil.

ONLY THE POLICE CAN CONDUCT A STRIP SEARCH in accordance with the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 (PACE) Code C.

Searching and screening pupils is conducted in line with the DfE's latest guidance on searching, screening and confiscation.

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

PUPIL SUPPORT, INCLUDING CHILDREN WITH A SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEED OR DISABILITY

The school recognises its legal duty under the Equality Act 2010 to prevent pupils with a protected characteristic from being at a disadvantage. Consequently, our approach to challenging behaviour may be differentiated to cater to the needs of the pupil.

Holywell School's special educational needs co-ordinator (SENCO) is Mrs Warner and she will evaluate a pupil who exhibits challenging behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met.

Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist teachers, an educational psychologist, medical practitioners and/or others, to identify or support specific needs.

When acute needs are identified in a pupil, we will liaise with external agencies and plan support programmes for them. We will work with parents to create the plan and review it on a regular basis.

SAFEGUARDING

The school recognises that changes in behaviour may be an indicator that a pupil needs help or protection. We will consider whether a pupil's misbehaviour may be linked to them suffering, or being likely to suffer, significant harm. Where this may be the case, we will follow our child protection and safeguarding policy, and consider whether pastoral support, an early help intervention or a referral to children's social care is appropriate.

Please refer to our child protection and safeguarding policy for more information.

PUPIL TRANSITION

To ensure a smooth transition to the next year, pupils have transition sessions with their new teacher(s). In addition, staff members hold transition meetings.

To ensure behaviour is continually monitored and the right support is in place, information related to pupil behaviour issues may be transferred to relevant staff at the start of the term or year.

In the event the pupil is moving to another school, relevant information related to managing pupil behaviour may be shared.

TRAINING

Our staff are provided with training on managing behaviour, including proper use of restraint, as part of their induction process. Research into current best practise is shared and behaviour management forms part of Holywell School's continuing professional development.

RESTORATIVE APPROACHES IN SCHOOL

WHAT ARE RESTORATIVE APPROACHES?

The 'unique selling point' of a restorative approach is that it offers schools an alternative way of thinking about addressing discipline and behavioural issues and offers a consistent framework for responding to these issues. However, the approach is much more than a 'behaviour management tool'. In isolation, used as such, it will not be very effective.

The table below compares different ways of thinking and responding in authoritarian and restorative models of discipline:

Authoritarian Approaches	Restorative Approaches
The focus is on:	The focus is on:
Rule-breaking Blame or guilt Adversarial processes Punishment to deter Impersonal processes	Harm done to individuals Responsibility and problem-solving Dialogue and negotiation Repair, apology and reparation Interpersonal processes
and, as a result;	and, as a result;
The needs of those affected are often ignored The unmet needs behind the behaviour are ignored Accountability = being punished	The needs of those affected are addressed The unmet needs behind the behaviour are addressed Accountability = putting things right

Schools that work restoratively find that relationships are stronger and learning is more effective, and so there is less need to resort to sanctions and punishments to try to 'manage' behaviour. There is a shift from one model of discipline to the other, at a pace appropriate to the school.

WHAT ARE THE RESTORATIVE QUESTIONS?

1. What happened?
2. What were you thinking at the time?
3. What have you thought since?
4. How did this make people feel?
5. Who has been affected?
6. How have they been affected?
7. What should we do to put things right?
8. How can we do things differently in the future?

This framework is based on sound learning theory regarding how people relate to each other and how best to meet the different needs that can arise from conflict or harm.

To facilitate such a process requires the ability to:

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

- establish a respectful rapport with people;
- listen and respond calmly, empathically and without interruption or judgment to all sides of an issue;
- inspire a sense of safety and trust;
- encourage people to express their thoughts, feelings and needs appropriately;
- appreciate the impact of people's thoughts, feelings, beliefs and unmet needs on their behaviours;
- encourage those involved in the problem to find their own solutions.

HOW IS THE RESTORATIVE APPROACH CARRIED OUT?

This learning framework can be used in a wide range of contexts:

A Restorative Conversation - A one-way conversation, with one person listening and asking questions and the other talking; or a two-way conversation, with both people taking turns to ask and answer questions;

A Corridor Conference - A small meeting when one impartial person - a facilitator - poses questions to two people who have had a difficulty, or where harm has been done, and who want to repair their relationship;

A Restorative Conference - A larger, facilitated meeting involving pupils, parents/carers, colleagues or others who have an important role to play;

A Restorative Circle - A facilitated circle involving part or all of a class and/or a staff team.

WHAT ARE THE KEY ELEMENTS OF RESTORATIVE APPROACHES?

Restorative Approaches are value-based and needs-led. They can be seen as part of a broader ethos or culture that identifies strong, mutually respectful relationships and a cohesive community as the foundations on which good teaching and learning can flourish. In such a community, pupils are given a lot of responsibility for decision-making on issues that affect their lives, their learning and their experience of school.

Restorative Approaches build upon the basic principles and values of humanistic psychology:

- Genuineness - honesty, openness, sincerity
- Positive regard for all individuals - valuing the person for who they are
- Empathic understanding – being able to understand another's experience
- Individual responsibility and shared accountability
- Self-actualisation - the human capacity for positive growth
- Optimistic perspectives on personal development - that people can learn and can change for the better.

Such principles and values not only underpin the more formal Restorative Approaches described above, but they can also be practised in our informal, day-to-day interaction with others. Adults who do this 'model' effective ways of building and maintaining emotionally healthy relationships, and promote helpful, pro-social attitudes. In doing so, these adults may well be providing a positive 'social learning context' not readily available to some pupils in other areas of their lives.

An 'iceberg' metaphor can illustrate a whole-school restorative approach. The diagram below emphasises two points:

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

- The ways in which the whole school community shares the responsibility to build, maintain and repair relationships are the more visible parts of Restorative Approaches. To be effective these processes need to be underpinned by sound knowledge, skills and shared values.
- By focusing the bulk of our effort on building and maintaining relationships, we will find that fewer things will go wrong and so there will be fewer occasions when relationships need to be repaired.

WHY ARE RESTORATIVE APPROACHES HELPFUL?

Staff, pupils and parents/carers who work restoratively report that this way of working leads to:

- A more respectful climate;
- A shift away from sanction-based responses that aim to 'manage' behaviour, toward a more
- relational approach;
- Better relationships amongst pupils and staff;
- People being more honest and willing to accept responsibility;
- People feeling more supported when things go wrong;
- A calmer, quieter and more productive learning environment.

USE OF PHYSICAL INTERVENTION BY STAFF

The governors of Holywell School have prepared and issued this statement in relation to the use of physical intervention by any staff member when dealing with pupils.

The decision to use physical intervention is one that members of staff must make themselves. Staff are asked to consider the following in relation to the use of physical intervention:

- The duty of care placed on teachers, with the notion of 'in loco parentis', means that a teacher who does not take reasonable steps to protect pupils from physical harm could be seen as negligent in this duty.
- Any person has the right to protect himself/herself from physical harm by another person but in doing so must only use 'reasonable force'.

Should a member of staff use physical means to deal with pupils, the incident should be reported verbally to the Head of School as soon as possible. The member of staff will be required to complete a written record of the incident.

WHAT DOES 'PHYSICAL INTERVENTION' MEAN?

The term 'physical interventions' refers to any method of responding to challenging behaviour which involves some degree of direct physical force to limit movement.

There are three broad categories of physical intervention:

- Direct physical contact between the staff member and pupil with challenging behaviour (e.g. holding down of arms)
- The use of barriers to limit freedom of movement (e.g. locked doors)
- The use of materials or equipment to restrict or prevent movement (e.g. the use of arm splints)

USING PHYSICAL INTERVENTIONS

This is a sensitive topic which creates many ethical and practical concerns. Some guidelines are:

- Physical interventions should only be used in the best interests of the pupil
- They should only be used alongside other strategies to help people learn to behave in non-challenging ways
- They should be individualised and reviewed regularly
- They should use minimal force and not cause pain

How to conduct a search and confiscation

Before a search

The Head of School or authorised staff member should:

- Make an assessment of how urgent the search is, and consider the risk to other pupils and staff
- Explain to the pupil why they are being searched, how and where the search will happen, and give them the opportunity to ask questions about it
- Always seek the pupil's cooperation

If a pupil refuses to cooperate

In this case, the authorised member of staff should first consider why this is, and act proportionally. It may be that the pupil:

- Is in possession of a prohibited or banned item
- Does not understand your instructions or what a search will involve
- Has had a previous distressing experience of being searched

If the pupil still refuses to cooperate:

- You may use consequences in line with the behaviour policy
- If you do not think that a search is needed urgently, seek advice from the Head of School, DSL or FLO. During this time, the pupil should be supervised somewhere away from other pupils
- Assess whether it is necessary to use reasonable force to conduct the search. Consider whether this would prevent the pupil from harming themselves or others, damaging property or causing disorder. Note: you can only use reasonable force to search for prohibited items but not other items banned in your school

Searching a pupil's clothes

Search the pupil in an appropriate location which offers privacy from other pupils. Authorised staff can search a pupil's pockets and require pupils to remove outer clothing, meaning clothes that are not worn directly next to the skin or over underwear. Outer clothing also includes:

- Gloves
- Scarves
- Shoes

You cannot ask pupils to take off any further items of clothing.

Holywell Primary School, Upchurch

Behaviour Policy and Statement of Behaviour Principles

Be sensitive to whether a pupil is wearing outer clothing for religious reasons when you conduct a search. For example, you should not require a female pupil to remove a headscarf worn for religious reasons if your witness is male.

Searching a pupil's possessions

Authorised staff can search lockers, desks and bags in the presence of the pupil and another member of staff (except in cases where there is a risk of harm and where it is not reasonably practicable to summon another member of staff - see section above on who can conduct a search for more detail).

You may use a metal detector to help with your search if appropriate.
